DATABASES [<http://www.sunyit.edu/library>]

Academic Search Premier – Scholarly multi-disciplinary database designed specifically for academic institutions

Historical Abstracts – abstracts of scholarly history articles, excluding the US and Canada

JSTOR – full-text archive of core scholarly journals in history, language and literature, Latin American studies

Literature Resource Center - Full-text journal articles, critical essays, author biographies, and plot summaries & explications

ProQuest – Full-text coverage of articles originally from magazines, newspapers, and journals

WorldCat – an international catalog of books; some are available via Interlibrary Loan, q.v.

HOW TO FIND EXAMPLES OF SCHOLARLY REVIEWS

1. Login to the library database ProQuest.
2. Click on the “Advanced Search” tab.
3. In the first empty box, type the title of the work.
4. Change the corresponding drop-down box to “Publication title.”
5. In the second empty box type either Book review or Movie review.
6. Change the corresponding drop-down box to “Document type.”
7. Click on the “Search” button.

INTERLIBRARY LOAN (ILL)

Our library shares its materials with other libraries and those other libraries share their materials with us; this sharing is called interlibrary loan. If you want a book or journal article which we do not own then fill out an online ILL form and we will get the material for you.

DO NOT LIMIT YOURSELF TO ONLY FULL-TEXT ARTICLES IN DATABASES.
USE THE LIBRARY’S PRINT JOURNALS AND MAKE FREE ILL REQUESTS.

SEARCHING FUNDAMENTALS

With Keyword Searching, you determine your search terms; you have greater flexibility but you get broader results. You must try multiple searches using different spellings and synonyms in order to match all the variations authors could use. Alternatively, Subject Searching is very organized and uses only librarian-determined terms; you find your Subject Heading and you search for it. You get fewer, better results, but you must use the term chosen by the person who cataloged the book or article. Keyword searching should lead to subject searching:

1. Perform a keyword search using important terms that define your topic.
2. Find a good result and look at its Subject Heading.
3. Perform a subject search using the Subject Heading you find.

EVALUATING WEB SITES

Always evaluate your web results for their:

accuracy – does the site misstate or misrepresent facts?

authority – who created the site and what are their affiliations and credentials?

bias – does the site offer a point of view or opinion?

coverage – how much information is there?

currency – when was the site last updated?
