SEARCHING FUNDAMENTALS

With Keyword Searching, you determine your search terms; you have greater flexibility but you get broader results. You must try multiple searches using different spellings and synonyms in order to match all the variations authors could use. Alternatively, Subject Searching is very organized and uses only pre-determined terms; you find your Subject Heading and you search for it. You must use the term chosen by the person who has cataloged the book or article.

1. Perform a keyword search using important terms that define your topic.
2. Find a good result and look at its Subject Heading.
3. Perform a subject search using the Subject Heading you find.

FINDING MATERIAL

You should divide your research into two stages:

Stage 1: Use the library databases to identify a source, e.g., a journal article

Stage 2: Use various resources to obtain the source, including:

360Link / List of E-journals – a list of magazines & journals available via our databases

List of Print Journals – a list of our print serials; the list is available in print & online

Librarians – always feel free to ask a librarian to help you locate material

Interlibrary Loan – fill out an online ILL form to obtain material we do not own

NEW – Ask Us 24/7 – virtual reference available 24/7

DATABASES

Academic Search Complete – full-text articles from over 3,600 peer-reviewed journals

Historical Abstracts - abstracts of articles covering the history of the world -- excluding North America -- from 1450 to the present

JSTOR - a complete full-text archive of core scholarly journals starting with first issues as far back as the nineteenth century

SUNYIT Catalog & WorldCat – information on books the library owns or can borrow

ProQuest – full-text articles from magazines, newspapers and journals

All databases are accessible from off-campus. You will need your SITNet ID and password.

INTERLIBRARY LOAN (ILL)

Our library shares its materials with other libraries and those other libraries share their materials with us; this sharing is called interlibrary loan. If you want a book or journal article which we do not own then fill out an online ILL form and we will get the material for you.
