SECTION 5 - PERFORMANCE RATING

Check the rating which best summarizes the employee's performance. A rating of "Unsatisfactory" must be supported by specific explanation and justification.

Satisfactory: This is a broad category which covers a wide range of employees, all of who are performing acceptably. It is the expected and usual level of performance. The employee generally meets performance expectations as specified in the performance program for all tasks and performs in a good, competent manner. This is the level that can minimally be expected from an employee in order for the work unit to function effectively.

The employee's performance may also be characterized as meeting minimal performance expectations for the job yet there may be areas of performance that should be improved. The employee may meet performance expectations for certain tasks or assignments, but some assignments may require extra follow-up and direction by the supervisor. It is only when the employee's performance clearly shows that it is below the expected performance level that a rating other than "Satisfactory" should be considered.

Note: Because this rating covers a wide range of performance, supervisors may want to consider the length of time the employee has been in the job as appropriate (i.e., employees in the same job title may be performing satisfactorily but at different levels due to length of time and/or experience on the job).

Unsatisfactory: The employee clearly does not meet performance expectations for one or more tasks, not even at a minimally acceptable level. The employee requires significant extra direction, or the supervisor finds it necessary to avoid assigning normal tasks to the employee. The employee cannot be relied upon to carry out critical assignments in a timely and effective fashion. There is a need for immediate and significant improvement in performance. Appeal Rights: Only ratings of UNSATISFACTORY are appealable. Disputes concerning issues such as an employee's performance program, and the rating and appeals process are not subject to appeal. Employees must file an appeal within 15 calendar days of the receipt of an UNSATISFACTORY rating. Appeals forms and procedural information are available from your personnel office. Employees have the right to a personal appearance and to CSEA-designated representation before the Appeals Board.

SECTION 6 - REVIEW AND APPROVAL

The employee's rating is not final until it is reviewed and approved.
